

What have you done?

I have been working on my assignments, putting in adequate effort. I did miss-calculate my time management on weeks 1 and 2 and missed some points to the assignments. The third week I was able to get my time management back on point.

What are you doing?

I am constantly logging in, checking updates, and making sure I have completed all of my tasks on time. I am feeling much more balance with school and life.

What's Next?

I will continue to double check my time management and make sure that I am meeting all deadlines. I am looking ahead of the weeks and make sure to know when and where I will need more time.

How TO?

I will make sure to physically get on the course and check the assignments and announcements. I will figure out ahead of time which events I have as a family/mom and arrange my school time accordingly.
